DIAGRAM 2A: MANAGEMENT ISSUE: GOVERNMENT COORDINATION

DIAGRAM 2B: MANAGEMENT ISSUE: LOCAL INPUT

How issue might manifest itself

Changes to the existing management structure Participants describe a lack of empowerment in the existing processes (e.g. Agency rulemaking or permitting)

Volunteer monitoring or data collection for use in decision making

Joint fact finding

Alternative dispute resolution

Co-management

Revise statutory decision making criteria to better reflect local concerns Some people do not participate because of the nature or timing of the process (e.g. fishermen in public hearings)

Forums for different user groups, or those that bring user groups together

Innovative and informal participation methods (e.g. interactive websites)

Some activities do not seem to have an existing forum for local input

Advisory committees

Appointments of specific stakeholders on groups/committees
